

WL ADVOCACY BINGO CHALLENGE

 Share the World Languages Increase Students' Prospects flier.	Unplug from technology devices for the day. 	 Explore the Public Advocacy Documents - read one article.	 Does your school offer the NYS Seal of Biliteracy? Yes? How does yours compare? No? How can you bring it to your school?	 Discover what ACTFL offers for advocating for WL education.
 Watch the Educational Update for Administrators and Counselors. Review its Facilitation Guide.	 Plan an activity for Foreign Language Week.	 Familiarize yourself with ways to involve Parents as Language Partners.	 Think of 3 things you are grateful for.	 Are the languages taught in your school representative of those in your county? Use Mapping the Nation to find out.
 Take a walk.	 Join another regional, state or national WL organization.	 FREE SPACE - your reward for persevering through the pandemic!	 Share the TALKING POINTS for the Revised Learning Standards for WL with administrators, board members & counselors.	 Who inspires you as a WL educator? Write them and share how they inspire you!
 Reflect on why you became a WL teacher. How will you share this with your students?	 Catch up on professional learning opportunities offered by the NYSED OBEWL.	 Phone a friend or family member.	 Plan a lesson on the benefits of multilingualism.	 Find out about WL legislation at the state and national levels.
 Find an infographic (in the target language) that describes the benefits of the language(s) you teach.	 Contact your NYS and US legislators during the summer recess. Review tips for advocacy beforehand.	 Explore WAKELET's NYS WL Standards Initiative: Authentic Resources.	 Do jobs in your county benefit from graduates proficient in another WL? Use Mapping the Nation to find out.	 Listen to relaxing music or your favorite song.